Norfolk Open Studios Art Exhibition - 10th and 11th June

Here is a bit of information regarding a very exciting event for our school and , in particular, those who have been a part of Advanced Art Club this year.

Last term I was thrilled to find out that we have been successful in our application to take part in this year's Norfolk Open Studios. This, incase you have not visited any before, is a special county-wide event where artists open their studios to show their work and work space....and this year Nelson Academy will be open too!!

We have chosen the 10th (evening) and 11th June (10-3) as our Open Days this year. Our exhibition will be in the school hall and will showcase Advanced Art Club work, as well as work from throughout school. It will also have taster tables where you can have a go at some art yourself. It will be open to the public too and will be FREE!!! The Friends of Nelson will even be selling refreshments, so you can fuel up beforehand!

It would be lovely to see some of you there!
